To: The Honorable Mayor and City Council
From: Marc Elias, Jr., Chief of Police

RE: Ordinance Replacing Code Enforcement Board with Special Magistrate

RECOMMENDATION

The City Attorney's office recommends that the Mayor and City Council adopt an Ordinance amending Chapter 2, Article III, Division 5 of the City Code entitled "Code Enforcement Board" specifically at sections 2-96 through 2-104 to eliminate "Code Enforcement Board" and replacing it with a "Special Magistrate," defining the qualifications, powers, and compensation of the Special Magistrate and further repealing Article III, Division 5.2, Section 2-108, entitled "Supplemental Code Enforcement Mechanism; Special Magistrates".

BACKGROUND

The Florida Legislature has authorized municipalities to use special magistrates in lieu of code enforcement boards to hold hearings and assess fines, costs, and liens against violators of the City Code. The City currently utilizes a Special Magistrate to hear code violation cases during the morning calendar and the Code Enforcement Board to hear cases scheduled for the evening calendar. Under the City Code Special Magistrates must be either retired Florida judges or a member of the Florida Bar for at least five (5) years.

There are numerous advantages to utilizing a special magistrate instead of a Code Compliance Board, such as efficient and expeditious decisions rendered in Code violation hearings and the benefit of the legal training of a special magistrate. Because of their legal background and training, Special Magistrates dispose of code enforcement cases in a more time efficient and equitable manner, especially those cases which are legally complex and highly technical.

An experienced outside lawyer is better-equipped to understand will provide improved service to the citizens of North Miami while maintaining meaningful due process apply facts to law, appear impartial, and avoid personal affiliations with city staff, City Council or respondents who must answer and appear as a result of alleged code violations. The benefit of hearing matters before magistrate also avoids potential conflicts and discomfort of pitting friend against friend or neighbor against neighbor, or appear to be doing so.

Council Report

776 N.E. 125 Street, North Miami, Florida 33161

Furthermore, hearings before a special magistrate would eliminate any potential quorum issues, would result in shorter hearings, would create a more formal hearing atmosphere; and will keep the costs of operating the Code Compliance Program as low as possible.

It is estimated that the use of a Special Magistrate will decrease the time to hear code enforcement violation cases by at least 2 hours for each evening hearing calendar. This will result in a costs savings to the City of approximately $4,249.21 a year in overtime compensation. Further, if the evening calendar was consolidated into the morning calendar with a start time of 2:00 p.m., the costs savings to the City would increase to approximately $11,282.81 yearly.

- (1) Was previously cited against a respondent;

- (2) Was corrected (or otherwise brought into compliance) without an order being entered reciting the existence of the violation; and
- (3) The same violation was allowed to again occur on the same property by the same respondent." Generally speaking, a recurring violation is a violation which recurs or one that is not corrected by the time specified for correction by the code inspector. And if the code inspector has reason to believe a recurring violation has occurred, the code inspector shall notify the violator and give the violator a reasonable time to correct the violation. Where the inspector alleges a recurring violation, the city shall present evidence at the violation hearing to support the allegation that the violation is a recurring violation. The special magistrate ~~or code enforcement board~~ may take "judicial notice" of matters in previous cases and in other city files.

Notice/fines. If the alleged violation is a recurring violation, the notice of hearing must recite that the alleged violation is a recurring violation, and if the property is again brought into compliance before the hearing, the special magistrate ~~or code enforcement board~~ shall make a determination that future findings of the same violation shall make said violations eligible to be "fined" in the amount of repeat violations. The notice of hearing is in addition to the notice that the code inspector shall provide to the violator.

Evidence. If the alleged violation is a recurring violation, the city shall present evidence at the violation hearing to support the allegation that the violation is a recurring violation. The special magistrate ~~or code enforcement board~~ may take "judicial notice" of matters in previous cases and other city files. Moreover, the special magistrate ~~or code enforcement board~~ has discretion to enter a "recurring order," which order(s) appears in substantially the same form as attached hereto in "Composite Exhibit A."*

- (2) If a repeat violation is found, the code inspector shall notify the violator but is not required to give the violator a reasonable time to correct the violation. The code inspector, upon notifying the violator of a repeat violation, shall notify the ~~enforcement board~~ special magistrate and request a hearing. ~~The code enforcement board~~ The special magistrate, through its ~~clerical~~ city staff, shall schedule a hearing and shall provide notice pursuant to F.S. 162.12. The case may be presented to the ~~code enforcement board~~ special magistrate even if the repeat violation has been corrected prior, to the ~~board~~ hearing, and the notice shall so state. Nothing contained in this division shall prohibit the city council from enforcing its codes by any other means.
